BELGIUM AND GERMANY.

PARLIAMENTARY AND CABINET EXPLANATIONS OF THE INTERNATIONAL DIFFICULTY.

BRUSSELS, April 16, 1875.

In the Chamber of Deputies this evening the Minister of Foreign Affairs stated that the government yesterday received Germany's reply to its last note.

The reply cites no fresh facts. It dwells on the principles of international law involved in the discussion, and expresses the hope that Belgium will seize the opportunity to dissipate the impression that Germany intended to attack the liberty of the press in Belgium.

The Minister, after informing the House of the contents of the note, said that in addition to the correspondence courteous verbal explanations had been exchanged with the German representative; and, in conclusion, he assured the Chamber that the Belgian government "sincerely desired to strengthen good relations with Germany."

PRUSSIA AND THE PAPACY.

GERMAN CLERICALS AND MONASTICISM OUT OFF FROM FREE COMMUNICATION WITH THE VATICAN—THE CONSTITUTION AROGATED AT BISMARCK'S BIDDING.

BERLIN, April 16, 1875.

The bill abolishing those clauses of the constitution which grant to the independent administration of ecclesiastical affairs the unimpeded intercourse of religious associations with their superiors, and freedom of clerical appointments, passed its second reading to-day in the lower house of the Prussian Diet.

BISMARCK'S GAVEL OF DEFEAT.

In the course of the debate Prince Bismarck said the government was loath to proceed to such measures, but they were unavoidable. Since the Vatican Council no one possessed the influence the Pope had. With a compact party, a well organized press and an army of obedient priests this power would be serious, even if it belonged to a native, instead of a foreign monarch. That monarch, if he had the means, would carry out his programme in Prussia, but he would first have to destroy the majority of the Prussian people.

The Prince closed his speech with these words:—"When all the breaches in the bulwarks of the State caused by granting too many rights to unworthy objects are repaired, then will we be able to conclude peace."

SPAIN.

THE BRITISH PARLIAMENT AND THE PRESS.

HOW DID THE NEWSPAPERS OBTAIN THE LOANS COMMITTEE DOCUMENTS?

LONDON, April 16, 1875.

In the House of Commons to-night there was an acrimonious debate on the question of summoning to the bar the printers of the Times and Yen, for breach of privilege for publishing documents in the hands of the Select Committee on Foreign Loans.

Mr. Disraeli moved a resolution that the Select Committee be instructed to investigate the affair and report how the press obtained the documents in question.

The resolution was carried and the order summoning the printers was discharged.

BALLOONING.

AN EXTRAORDINARY ASCENT FROM PARIS—TWO OF THE TRAVELLERS KILLED AND ANOTHER VERY ILL.

PARIS, April 16, 1875.

A party of three persons ascended in the balloon Zenith to-day for the purpose of making scientific observations. The balloon attained the extraordinary height of 8,000 metres (over 26,000 feet).

FATAL RESULTS.

Two of the aeronauts were suffocated to death, and when the balloon reached the ground the third was almost insensible, and has since been so ill that his recovery is doubtful.

THE AMERICAN MURDERER STILL IN PRISON AT HAVANA—HIS SHIPMENT FOR NEW YORK DOUTIFUL.

HAVANA, April 16, 1875.

William J. Sharkey remains in jail, and is not allowed to hold communication with any one. The steamer Columbus sailed to-day without him.

WILL HE BE GIVEN UP?

Whether the Spanish authorities have arrived at any decision in his case is unknown. It is possible he may be sent to New York to-morrow, but if not he will certainly be kept in jail for the present.

JOHN FOX'S PERSISTENCY.

John Fox insists on the truth of his charges against Sharkey.

THE HORRORS OF ACAPULCO.

REPORT OF CAPTAIN QUEEN, OF THE NAVAL STEAMER SARANAC—THE ATTACK ON THE PROTESTANT CHURCH INSTITUTED BY A CATHOLIC CURATE—DEATH OF HENRY MORRIS, A COLORED AMERICAN CITIZEN.

WASHINGTON, April 16, 1875.

The Navy Department has received a communication from Captain Queen, commanding the United States steamer Saranac, dated Acapulco, March 27, having been ordered thither to inquire into the circumstances attending the death by violence of an American citizen, Captain Queen reports that about the 15th of March Procopio C. Diaz and other residents of Acapulco, all Catholics and citizens of Mexico, organized a congregation for religious worship according to the Protestant creed. The meetings were held on Sundays and other days in the house of Diaz, and were strictly of a private character.

Diaz and some members of his flock were occasionally stoned by the populace and otherwise annoyed, but sustained no serious damage to their persons. On December last the Rev. H. H. Hutchison, head of the Presbyterian Mission in Mexico, was solicited by the congregation to become their pastor, and to organize the congregation in a more formal manner. Converts were added to the church, and at the society numbered sixty-eight persons, mostly natives of the country, preaching to-day and prayer meetings were held at Diaz's residence. A few minutes after eight o'clock a man came to the door of the church and announced that a party of Mexicans armed with machetes and muskets, from the testimony added on the examination into the disturbances, only six or eight of the Protestants were killed, and the others were directed to leave the church. The Protestants, after the massacre, were driven from the church and were not allowed to return until the morning. The Protestants were driven from the church and were not allowed to return until the morning.

It was then ascertained, according to official inquiry, that three men and one woman had been killed and seven men wounded. Among the number was a colored man named Henry Morris, a barber and a native of Boston. His body was mutilated, the head being aimed at several times by the rebels. The rebels were armed with machetes and muskets, and were not allowed to return until the morning.
